water & power environment

Balancing water, power and the environment.

Using water, Australia's most valuable renewable resource, Snowy Hydro generates the power that meets the everyday peak power demands of electricity retailers and customers. The same water that produces power for millions of people across Australia then goes on to irrigate one of Australia's most important agricultural regions.

And by using water to generate power, Snowy Hydro reduces Australia's greenhouse gas emissions by the equivalent of one million cars every year.

Snowy Hydro creates the risk management solutions and innovative products that provide a competitive advantage to its retail partners. These solutions and products guarantee a reliable source of power to consumers and businesses when they demand it most.

Snowy Hydro balances the needs of power users, irrigators and the environment and ensures that the maximum environmental, economic and social value is obtained from Australia's most valuable resource - water.

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Ian Knop

By now you will all be aware of Soccer Australia's decision to go ahead with its plans to reduce the National Soccer League by four clubs before the start of next season.

Whether we agree with the decision or not, the only sensible response at this time is to accept it and to work towards making sure that the Novell Canberra Cosmo is not one of those clubs.

I say 'we' quite deliberately, because it seems to me that one of the two missing elements to ensure that we remain in the top group of the NSL is crowd support at home games. I know that our crowd attendances are 37% up on last season, but as we go through a losing patch numbers are beginning to decrease once again.

In my view it would be a mistake for Soccer Australia to create a second division, but regardless of this the most important thing is for the Cosmos to start winning again.

I've said many times that the roar of a crowd can do wonders for a side which, for whatever reason, is struggling. The roar of a crowd can raise a team above itself and help it win. And that's the second missing element at the moment, winning.

So, really, whether the Novell Canberra Cosmos remains in the top division of the NSL next season must rest heavily on the Canberra community. Without community support at home games to help the Cosmos win, and despite the ongoing efforts of the Board and myself, we may not be able to make it.

The Board and I wish everyone a very Happy New Year, but if it is to be a happy one for top soccer in the ACT may well, in the end, be up to you.

We welcome Northern Spirit and coach Graham Arnold tonight. They, too, are going through a difficult time at the moment, but I sincerely hope that it will our difficulties that will be alleviated today.

AND REVIEWS

...looking for some positives to come ...f the last two performances, but when ...

at Wollongong following the 0-3 loss the Chairman said "we played badly", I knew it was plain going to be hard.

And really, you can see the strain on Tom Sermanni's face as the team is just not showing the passion, or as Tom puts it, responsibility. There is a lack of desire out on the field.

The last home game was the second of two against Sydney Olympic. They won 3-1 and with the result in Brisbane, were catapulted to the lead of the competition.

The first half saw the team from Sydney play some great football and their lead of 2-0 at the break was well deserved.

Following the break, the Cosmos came back into the game. An obvious lambasting from Tom saw his chargers come out fighting. Next, a little magic from youngster David Arranz.

Having ridden a foul, he manouvered towards the box and in doing so beat two more defenders. Then as David was losing his footing he sent a shot into the top left corner which gave the Olympic goal-keeper absoluteley no chance.

The boys pushed hard for the equaliser and really worked for 20 minutes. The only problem was that this was really the solitary time they showed any compassion for their supporters. When Baillie struck with his glancing header, it was all over.

Both sides accepted the scoreline as final and the game petered out into boredom. Such was the lack of interest, and unfortunate reminders of days gone by.

The Sunday before Christmas and the Cosmos travelled to Wollongong. They were bolstered by the return of Gonzalez, Winnie, Burt and Musitano.

Tom left out top scorer, Danny Watkins, so as to rest him but even with the ex-Spirit forward, there is little chance the result would have changed.

A new pairing up front of Musitano and De Jesus tried hard in the first half, when running with the gale. Yet, there was a lack of midfield support when the long ball came to them.

In the 15th minute Canberra were caught out. A quick free-kick not too far outside the box went right to Matthew Horsley and he sent a low cross that completely wrong-footed the whole defence for Sasho Petrovski to side-foot home.

The Cosmos boys were well in the game with a number of chances, but not one of them were on target and with all the crosses and corners being easily handled by the Wolves keeper, the Cosmos were left scoreless at the break.

Gonzalez could have done better with a great through ball from De Jesus and Miliin saw his pile-driver shot from distance go wide.

A minute into the second half and Petrovski nearly made it two when he beat the defence down the left and sent a shot past Barlow, but the upright came to the keeper's rescue.

The left side proved the downfall later in the half when in the 78th minute Scott Chipperfield played a long one-two with Petrovski, beat the defence and when one-on-one with Barlow sent the ball past the defenceless keeper.

Then 4 minutes later and the damage was completed. Topi Popovich pushed the ball back to Barlow to be cleared. Not quite on the right foot and with the gale in his face, his attempted clearance went straight to Paul Reid.

Reid took the ball down the right and into the box, dragging Barlow out to block the shot, but when the Wolves player passed the ball into the centre of the box, all that was needed was for Petrovski to trap, turn and shoot.

Toppy hits 80

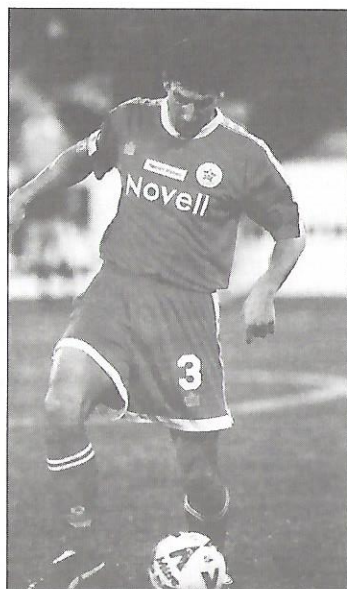

The Canberra Cosmos would like to congratulate Toplica Popovich on reaching his 80th NSL appearance with the club this week.

This is a new club record, the previous one being held by Norman Kelly who made 79 appearances.

"Toppy" has scored twice during this time, the last goal being against Perth Glory earlier this season.

One of Cosmos' earliest signings from our first season in the NSL, Popovich is known for his big-hearted defending and steady on-field commitment. Not to mention his friendly community involvement, especially with junior soccer players in Queanbeyan.

A great effort from one of our local boys!

COACH'S CORNER

Tom Sermanni talks
with John Bonnett

JB Last Sunday was our fourth defeat in a row, and teams we should be taking points from are beating us. What went wrong last Sunday and what can we do to reverse the trend?

It's difficult to pinpoint specifics. There are a couple of areas we need to focus on. Getting into a losing streak is not good to become a habit and also a confidence thing. We must look hard at the team we have to put out to get a win and take it from there.

We're surely not back in the position where we don't believe in ourselves are we?

No it's not a question of belief. It's a question of how we are going to react to going through a really tough period. And that means I'll have to start making decisions about the team to get a result. Now we are going to approach playing differently.

A great deal of what happens on the field is dependent upon what is happening in the players' heads. Do you agree with that and if so what can you do about it?

I think I've partly answered that in my first question. It's partly a question of confidence. It might mean working harder training and working at different things. I can't say specifically what has to be done about it. We have to work in different areas and use it could be a number of different things causing the problems.

Are you still happy with the squad you have?

Yes. If you look on paper we have a good squad and you have seen a team that can do, and has done, well against strong opposition and can get results. Even the best teams can have a tough time. For example Marconi lost six games in a row last year. So we've just got to do what we can to turn things around.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all our supporters wherever they are, whether in the club working directly with us; or providing direct support on a part time basis; or who are members of the supporters club, or who, last but not certainly not least, support us at our home games. Thank you from all of the playing staff. We cannot exist without you. We hope that the year 2000 will be a happy, healthy and memorable one for you. We will do our best to make some of it come true.

goal came from a well-constructed up from our right and a delightful nal ball from Carl Valeri to Goran

just outside the corner of the six yard box.
In the second half, remembering our display against Sydney Olympic with 10 men, where we got done in the last minute, there was going to be no repeat today. We still created the better chances in the second half but some good goalkeeping and defending prevented us from scoring again. Our defence
